

Dear all

Invitation to a half a day workshop on Arbitration Law
Wednesday 9 August, 9:00 – 14:30 at Phnom Penh Hotel

I am delighted to extend an invitation to you to attend a half a day seminar on the Cambodian Law on Commercial Arbitration which was adopted by the National Assembly in March 2006 and is now in force.

The seminar is organised for all interested parties and is sponsored and supported by the Ministry of Commerce, the EU Delegation to Cambodia, and GTZ International Services.

The seminar will cover:

- Main features of commercial arbitration (what users of arbitration expect from the process), based on empirical research;
- Essential characteristics of arbitration law (introduction, legislative history, content);
- Issues relating to the implementation of the law, in particular the proposed Arbitration Rules for the Cambodian National Arbitration Centre;
- Practical aspects of arbitration law and
- Case studies on the application of the law.

Venue: Phnom Penh Hotel, 53 Monivong Blvd.

Date: Wednesday 9 August 2006

Time: 9:00 – 14:00; it is possible that for interested parties the seminar will be extended until 17:00.

Main Speaker: Professor Loukas Mistelis, Director, School of International Arbitration, Queen Mary University of London

The seminar is held under the auspices of the Ministry of Commerce, HE Cham Prasidh, HE Kem Sithan and HE Mao Thora.

Participation is free of charge and coffee break and lunch will be offered.

Space is limited, so please confirm your participation as soon as possible by email to L.Mistelis@qmul.ac.uk. If you cannot attend but you think that someone else would be interested in attending, please forward this email

We do look forward to seeing you at the seminar and apologise for the short notice.

Yours sincerely

LM
